Wolf Creek Utah Gears Up for Spring with Incredible Golf Packages

Golf Wolf Creek Utah and Stay the Night for Just $79!

EDEN, Utah – (April 24, 2009) – After an amazing ski season, Wolf Creek Utah is getting ready for the warmer weather! They're kicking off their prime golf season with some major discounts on golf and lodging packages.

Wolf Creek Utah's "One-Night Midweek Golf Special" includes one night's lodging between Sunday and Wednesday at Red Moose Lodge and one round of golf for just $79 per person! Additional nights and golf are available at the same rate. The rate is based on a double room and one night's stay.

The "Two-Night Midweek Golf Special" package includes lodging in a three bedroom condo at Moose Hollow between Sunday and Wednesday and a foursome of golf for two days for just $99 per person per night! The rate is based on quad occupancy with a two night minimum.

Wolf Creek Utah's private 18-hole, par 72, 7,018-yard golf course mesmerizes and challenges players from start to finish. Designed by Mark Baliff, the Wolf Creek Utah golf course boasts beautiful scenery of the surrounding mountains, as well as water elements coming into play on at least four of its holes. The golf course also features practice facilities, a golf shop, a dining room and lounge, as well as a recreational center. Wolf Creek Utah's environmental commitment is exhibited by becoming the first golf course in the State of Utah to be certified by the Audubon Society. Wolf Creek Utah achieves this by reducing and emphatically controlling the use of chemicals in their landscaping.

These offers are valid April 15th through June 15th, 2009. To book your stay at Wolf Creek Utah, please call 800-301-0817 or email us at lodging@wolfcreekutah.com. For more information about other seasonal vacation packages at Wolf Creek Utah, visit www.wolfcreekutah.com.
